QUALIFICATION PRINCIPLES

The 12 teams competing in the 2014 Olympic Winter Games Men's Competition will be determined by February 2013.

The IIHF World Ranking System will determine seeding for the Olympic competition and all qualifications of this competition.

The qualification system for participation in the 2014 Olympic Winter Games Men's Competition will be performed in four separate stages:

- Direct Entry
- Preliminary Qualification
- Olympic Pre-Qualification
- Final Olympic Qualification

Direct Entry

The top nine men's teams from the 2012 IIHF World Ranking, (determined immediately following completion of the 2012 IIHF World Championship), will be automatically qualified for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games competition and seeded directly into the Preliminary Round following the seeding procedures outlined in the IIHF Sport Regulations and using their 2012 IIHF World Ranking number.

NOCs of the qualified National Associations must confirm by 31 May 2012, to the IIHF, that they will use their place obtained through direct entry.

Preliminary Qualification, Olympic Pre-Qualification and Final Olympic Qualification

The National Associations entering their men's team into the qualification for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games will be allocated to one of the three Final Olympic Qualification tournaments, or to one of the three Olympic Pre-Qualification Tournaments or, if necessary, into Preliminary Qualifications using their ranking numbers according to the 2012 IIHF World Ranking.

The Olympic Pre-Qualification and the Final Qualification Tournaments will be formatted and seeded as specified below with team registration as presented in the formats that follow.

The top ranked teams by Group have the hosting rights for each qualification tournament. Confirmations must be made by the 2012 Annual Congress. The venue must be accepted by the IIHF in all hosting arrangements.

Should the highest ranked team reject the hosting rights or if the venue does not meet IIHF standards, then the event will be offered to the next highest ranked team following these conditions until an organiser is allocated.

The three winning teams of the respective Final Olympic Qualification Tournaments will fill the remaining positions of the Men's Competition of the 2014 Olympic Winter Games.
