PERFORMANCE & CONTINENTAL REPRESENTATION
Qualification is attributed to the athlete by name.
NOCs with more than one qualified athlete have the authority to decide which athlete they will enter to the YOG.
Athletes must have achieved their qualification position through the following official qualification competitions:
2009 UIPM YOG Qualification Competitions Asia/Oceania: 2 first placed athletes coming from different NOCs from Asia and the 1 st placed athlete from Oceania Africa 1st placed athlete Europe 3 first placed athletes coming from different NOCs Americas 2 first placed athletes coming from different NOCs
2010 World Youth A Championships, 10 – 13 June (Uppsala, Sweden) 8 first placed athletes, not qualified previously
Relay competition Teams will be composed of one male athlete and one female athlete from the Individual competitions. The team members will be decided by draw following completion of the Individual competitions.

HOST COUNTRY REPRESENTATION

The host country will directly qualify one (1) male and one (1) female athlete to the YOG.

C. Reallocation of unused quota places

UNUSED IF QUOTA PLACES

Any IF quota places, obtained during the above continental qualification competitions and which are not taken up by the respective NOC, will be reallocated to the next athlete/NOC of the respective continent. For the 2010 World Youth A Championships they will be reallocated to the next athlete/NOC

UNUSED HOST COUNTRY PLACES

Any unused host country places will be reallocated to the next placed athlete/NOC from the 2010 World Youth A Championships, not already qualified.

UNUSED NOC UNIVERSALITY PLACES

Any unused places within the reserved UIPM quota of NOC Universality places will be reallocated to the next placed athlete/NOC from the 2010 World Youth A Championships not already qualified.
