

NED MIDDLEHURST- SPORT CLIMBING

DATE OF BIRTH: 29/12/2000

AGE AT GAMES: 17

LIVES: Bittern, VIC

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- / 1st place in Lead & Boulder & Combined (Youth A) at Oceania Championships 2017
- / 5th Place at Open Boulder National Championships 2017
- / 1st place in Lead, Boulder, Speed & Overall (Junior) at Youth National Championships 2018
- / Competing at World Youth Championships 2016 & 2017

TRAINING

- / Training Base/Club: Bayside Rock Climbing
- / Coach: Will Hammersla / Pat Klein

FUN FACTS

- / Sport beginnings: I began climbing when I went on a school camp to Mt Arapiles back when I was 12. I wanted to climb because I thought it would be fun and physically rewarding. This passion then translated into indoor rock climbing.
- / Sporting hero: Alexander Megos
- / Dream job: Climbing Coach / professional climbing photographer
- / If I were an animal, I would be: A red panda
- / If I was stuck on a desert island with only 3 things, they would be: A Bouldering wall, a cinema and a down jacket
- / When I'm not training/competing, you can find me: Hanging out with my friends or going to the movies.
- / If I tried a different Olympic sport, it would be: Archery or Tennis
- / I would spend my last $10 on: A sushi platter

RECENT PERFORMANCES

- / 1st- 2018 Lead, Boulder, Speed & Overall National Youth Championships (Junior), Villawood, NSW
- / 1st – 2018 Victorian State Lead Championships (Junior), Brunswick, VIC
- / 1st – 2018 Victorian State Speed Championships (Junior & Open), Brunswick, VIC
2018 Victorian State Lead Championships (Junior)